Maya Gallery is proud to present our upcoming group exhibition, Homeland, from August 5th to 18th, 2023, showcasing contemporary landscape artworks that depict the concept of "home" and the idea of belonging.

The exhibition will feature a diverse range of artworks created by 27 talented artists from Singapore and around the world, selected from an international open call. Through paintings, photography, digital art, and mixed media, the artists invite viewers to explore the perceptions of home and what it means to individuals in today's changing world.

MEDIA RELEASE

The artworks featured in the exhibition convey a range of emotions, from nostalgia to a sense of displacement, and are imbued with a sense of place and belonging. Through Homeland, the artists showcase their unique perspectives on the theme of home, reflecting the diversity of cultures and experiences of people around the world. The exhibition encourages viewers to think beyond the physical space they inhabit and consider the emotional and psychological connections they have to the places they call home.

ABOUT MAYA GALLERY

Maya Gallery is a leading home-grown, artist-run, non-profit gallery with a focus on heritage, culture, Singapore and Southeast Asian art. Officially opened in Kampong Glam in 2012 by Jeffrey Wandly and Masturah Sha'ari, it is currently located in the industrial hub of MacPherson, where factories for batik production thrived in the 1960s and 70s. The gallery is committed to promoting and supporting our local artists through exhibitions, public programmes, educational initiatives and collaborations.
